BUY:

- LSTR dispalys very positive technical medium and long term. LSTR broke out in July 2020, December 2020, and February 2021. Each time LSTR moved to new highs, it tested the breakout level and moved higher; creating a very steady uptrend line. Now, LSTR is back at support from its 14-month uptrend line after declining `12% in the past 28 days (zoom chart). The relative performance chart 4 shows that LSTR and the Transportation Sector remain outperformers in the past year and this relative strength should continue.
